9. Detachment Commanders Report

- No new public complaints
- Two former complaints are still working through the process
- Staffing updates reviewed. Upcoming retirements announced. Three positions will be backfilled to match up to retirement dates
- October – December stats reviewed.
- Break and Entry numbers are trending back to the 2012 levels. A “focused patrol” will be introduced.
- Clearance rates are high for violent crimes and drug crimes. Property crimes are often not cleared but trends are reduced when an offender is taken in.
- Unfounded cases need further review by the Staff Sargent to better understand.
- Criminal record screening is down significantly.
- Phone scams and fraud are reported under property crimes. Phone scams are redirected to Canadian Fraud Centre. The public can self-direct these scams as well.
- Traffic stats are skewed because they are from another data base and include highways 401/7/15. While staff shortages are reflected in the stats, there has been no permanent reductions in the detachments staffing complement.
- Ticket and POA revenue flows through the courts.
- Discussions on motor vehicle collisions and Perth Road statistics. Public Works is to be providing traffic counts. Volume is to be correlated with accident stats.

10. Committee Reports

- Advertising has been pre booked for the year. Ads feature the art work provided by the OPP.
- SALT has had its launch meeting and several coordinating meetings. The first information session aimed at seniors will take place on April 19 at three different locations
